

4. Pet. Verzeichniss der auf Indien bezüglichen Handschriften und Holzdrucke im Asiatischen Museum, von Otto Böhtlingk. Printed in Das Asiatische Museum zu St. Petersburg von Dr. Bernh. Dorn. St. Petersburg 1846. 8. I was unable to obtain some other lists of Sanskrit Mss., which are extant at St. Petersburg.

5. IO. The Library of the India Office in London contains the collections of Colebrooke, Wilkins, Taylor, the Gaikawar, Johnson, Fleet, Ballantyne, Burnell, and others. When my work went to press, only the first part of the valuable Catalogue by Professor Eggeling, containing the Vedic Manuscripts, was then published. By the courtesy of the Author I was allowed the use of the proof-sheets of the second part, and those of the third part as far as page 552. My work would have been materially benefited, could I have waited for the completion of the whole. But there is no prospect of this Catalogue being finished for perhaps another ten years. The loss thereby caused has to a small extent been remedied by my having examined about 1150 volumes while residing in England, and afterwards during my occasional visits to London.

6. W. Verzeichniss der Sanskrit-Handschriften (der Königlichen Bibliothek in Berlin) von A. Weber. Berlin 1853. 4. This is a pattern of what a Catalogue ought to be, and it deals with MSS. which in their bulk are not surpassed in value by any other collection in Europe.

7. Oxf. Catalogus Codicum Sanscriticorum Bibliothecae Bodleianae. Confecit Th. Aufrecht. Oxonii 1864. 4. Since this Catalogue was printed, the Bodleian Library, with the exception of Hultsch's collection, has not much increased its store of Sanskrit MSS. These additional MSS. I have examined and have, with only a few exceptions, entered in the present book.

8. Cambr. A Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Library of Trinity College, Cambridge. By Th. Aufrecht. Cambridge 1869. 8. The University Library in Cambridge has collected a considerable number of Sanskrit works, which ought to be made known to the Learned.

9. Paris. No printed Catalogue is in existence. Fortunately, I was able to avail myself of a written alphabetical Catalogue compiled by S. Munk, of which an abridged copy was made for Lassen by Goldstücker. Mr. Féer was obliging enough to send me in 1886 a list of later additions under the title of 'Liste des titres de Manuscrits Sanskrits ajoutés au Catalogue de Munk, augmentée des titres des Manuscrits en caractères autres que le Devanāgarī et le Bengali qui ne sont pas donnés dans le Catalogue'. I have great pleasure in recording my thanks to Mr. Féer publicly. — Both lists are unfortunately replete with errors. Burnouf's MSS. are enumerated in the catalogue of sale of his books. They are few and not valuable. The small Catalogue by Hamilton and Langlès, Paris 1807. 8. I could not procure on the Continent. — Quoted by the numbers of entry in the written Catalogue.

10. Hall. A contribution towards an Index to the Bibliography of the Indian Philosophical systems. By Fitzedward Hall. Calcutta 1859. 8. It would be presumption on my part to speak in praise of a work which by universal consent is considered to be unique and perfect in its particular department.

11. L. Notices of Sanskrit MSS. by Rājendralāla Mitra. Calcutta 1871—90. Nine volumes in 8, and the first part of the tenth. This is decidedly the best analysis of Sanskrit Mss., which up to the present time has been made by a Native of India. The copious extracts are very useful, and enable the attentive reader to judge of the contents of a work, even where he is deserted by the English text. The indefatigable industry of the Editor deserves every kind of commendation. — Quoted by numbers.

12. Kln. A classified alphabetical Catalogue of Sanskrit MSS. in the Southern division of the Bombay Presidency. Compiled by F. Kielhorn. Fascicle I. Bombay 1869. 8.

13. K. A Catalogue of Sanskrit MSS. existing in the Central Provinces. Edited by F. Kielhorn. Nagpur 1874. 8.
